IF YOU COULD BE YOUR MOST PRODUCTIVE, WHAT WOULD THAT MEAN FOR YOUR WORK AND LIFE?

PRODUCTIVITY ≠ EFFICIENCY

Productivity = Focus

- The freedom to focus—where all the important work is done
- The freedom to be present—instead of thinking about work or other things when you're with your family.
- The freedom to be spontaneous—to have room on your calendar for the fun and interesting opportunities that crop up.
- The freedom to do nothing—to shrug off the unrelenting busy-ness of life and just be.

DECIDE TO BE PRODUCTIVE

1. Develop self awareness about why you're being unproductive.
2. Find Your Optimal Level of Productivity
3. Plan ahead to be productive.
4. Stick to the plan

USE BLOCK SCHEDULING TO FIND FREEDOM

- Schedule the important and not urgent work
- Schedule the important and urgent work
- Delegate or schedule the urgent and not important work
- Remove the not urgent and not important work from your plate (and mind)
- Minimize people's ability to hold of you and the number of times you check email
- Minimize meetings and decisionmakers
